Chateau La Villatade at Wine Paris to increase footprint in Americas and Asia and meet increased demand for Languedoc wines

Chateau La Villatade is located near the famous castle of Carcassonne in the heart of Languedoc : 129 hectares in one piece around the cellar in a natural setting of great bio-diversity: vineyards on gentle slopes, but also olive groves, cypresses, pines, scrubland, oaks and beeches... It sits in the foothills of the impressive Montagne Noire, with its unique schist, marl and limestones soils to produce Minervois finest wines. A terroir which bestow its wines with both power, elegance and freshness.

Beginning of 2016 Sophie and Richard Andreelli fall in love with this unique place full of history and a new adventure was born on this historic site. Since then, they have heavily invested on the winery, on the vineyard and on the buildings.

Their goal: to produce high-end wines at affordable prices, representative of the Languedoc terroir, keeping in mind that consumers' growing interest is in wines that are more about fruit. They have embraced that challenge, and all Château La Villatade wines are now crafted by working first of all on fruit taste presence.

The 2016 cuvées had already a great success among consumers around Europe and have been very well rated by the specialists in particular :
