

CONFRERIE DES DOMAINES & DAD MERGER

Two of the most recognized French Export Office are merging as of January 2019: Confrérie des Domaines is taking over its sister company DAD. DAD, which is specialized in South of France wines, will complement Confrérie des Domaines large offering. The new company will now represent a group of 32 estates from all key French regions: Burgundy, Champagne, Provence, Languedoc, Rhone, Bordeaux, Loire, etc. Selling to 643 importers in more than 60 countries, present at every main fairs in the world, the whole commercial team and the director, Yvan Bavencoff, will be at the Wine Paris stand to welcome you (4 F 204).

